

Table Rock 8th Grade Geology Vocabulary

Dendritic - default drainage pattern, looks like branches of a tree

Drainage pattern - pattern created by paths of streams and their tributaries

Infrared lithograph - false color photograph using infrared film and color shifting

Structural Control - underlying rock characteristics determine drainage pattern

Watershed - all the land area drained by a stream and its tributaries